

Wedding Song Suggestions

Prelude: Mix of classical and love songs. Mix in hymns if desired.

Seating of mothers/candle lighting can be part of the prelude or their own piece. Best to choose a processional song or a hymn.

Processionals should have a good walking beat and a variety of good stopping points. These songs all work well:

- Pachelbel's Canon (Pachelbel)
- Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring (Bach)
- Processional (Wood)
- Bridal Chorus (Wagner)
- The Joy of Love (Martini)
- A Thousand Years (Hodges and Perri)
- Marry Me (Train)
- Trumpet Tune (Purcell)
- Trumpet Voluntary (Purcell)
- Perfect (Sheeran)

Recessionals are usually more upbeat than processionals. These work well:

- Wedding March (Mendelssohn)
- Spring (Vivaldi)
- Ode to Joy (Beethoven)
- Trumpet Tune (Purcell)
- Trumpet Voluntary (Purcell)
- Hornpipe (Handel)
- I Will (Lennon and McCartney)
- A Whole New World (Menken)
- Marry You (Mars)
- Everything (Buble)

Unity Candle/Sand Ceremony can be any song. I recommend a love song such as one of these:

- The Prayer (Sayer and Foster)
- Bless the Broken Road (Rascal Flatts)
- All of Me (Stephens)
- Tale As Old As Time (Menken)
- Can You Feel the Love Tonight (John)
- How Beautiful (Paris)
- I Can't Help Falling In Love (Presley)
- When You Say Nothing At All (Krauss)
- There Is Love (Stookey)
- A Thousand Years (Hodges and Perri)
- Thinking Out Loud (Sheeran)
- Through the Eyes of Love (Hamlis)
- A Whole New World (Menken)
- The Wind Beneath My Wings (Henley and Silbar)
- May It Be (Enya)
- All I Ask of You (Webber)
- From This Moment (Twain)

Communion should be something meditative, such as a hymn.

- Be Thou My Vision
- In the Garden
- You Raise Me Up
- How Beautiful
- In Christ Alone
- Ave Maria
- The Prayer
